York City Day Camp will become the District Advance Special in 2018. It is already a Conference Advance Special. While you have many mission opportunities , I would strongly ask that you consider making York City Day Camp a mission opportunity in your church this Lenten/Easter Season. This mission which was born when Bethlehem farms closed still reaches directly out to children in need. The opportunity to tell someone you care about them never gets old. Please consider any contribution large or small is worthwhile to this cause. If you have any questions, please contact our colleague Pastor Tanya Brubaker.

In Christ,

Rev. Charlie Salisbury, York DS

Thank you to everyone who helped with our successful Pot Pie Supper. We had a great time of fun and fellowship with the Calvary United Friends which included many former St. Paul's members, former Otterbien members, and our new members. It was a great opportunity to get to know each other a little better.
