From the Pastor ...

Mark 10:17-22 (NRSV)

The Rich Man

¹⁷ As he was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” ¹⁸ Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. ¹⁹ You know the commandments: ‘You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honor your father and mother.’” ²⁰ He said to him, “Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth.” ²¹ Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, “You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money^[a] to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.” ²² When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions.

This was an opportunity to be a first-hand Disciple of Jesus Christ and the man turned away from it.

What is it in our lives that takes the place of Jesus?

We might be quick to answer that nothing is more important to us than our relationship with Jesus, but Lent drives us deeper. I’m sure the “Rich Man” thought he had accomplished something by obeying the Commandments. He probably thought he had a good head start.

How does even our spiritual success get in the way of our prioritizing our relationship with Jesus above all else? Sometimes pride can sneak in and begin to disrupt our relationship with Jesus. Spiritual confidence is one thing; pride and arrogance can get us into spiritual trouble.

Jesus invites us to follow Him as we keep Him first in all things. Be successful and continue to completely lean on Jesus.

The journey through Lent is one of discovery. Go deeper.

Sharing the journey of faith,

Pastor Mike

O Lord, who hast mercy upon all, take away from me my sins, and mercifully kindle in me the fire of the Holy Spirit. Take away from me the heart of stone, and give me a heart of flesh, a heart to love and adore Thee, a heart to delight in Thee, to follow and enjoy Thee, for Christ's sake, Amen.

UMCOR Sunday ~ March 11

Formerly "One Great Hour of Sharing"

In the moments after a disaster strikes or after crisis hits locally or globally, it can feel paralyzing. Many feel compelled to act but are uncertain how to respond in a meaningful way.

Through the leadership of the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR), a ministry of the General Board of Global Ministries, the church is empowered to act in these moments, in the midst of conflict, war and natural disaster. The work of UMCOR reaches 80 countries including the United States.

UMCOR focuses on relief work with the aim of restoring communities to stability. While UMCOR does not send in the first response teams, UMCOR is committed to staying until communities are able to return to a sense of normalcy.

UMCOR also supports global health initiatives that include hygiene, sanitation and clean water projects, as well as working in communities to assist with developing sustainable agriculture. UMCOR recently earned a 4-star rating by Charity Navigator, an organization that rates charities, for its strong financial health and commitment to accountability and transparency. That is in part because of the UMCOR Sunday offering in which 100 percent of the offering directly supports the overhead costs of UMCOR.

On Sunday, March 11, we will observe UMCOR Sunday in order to lift up and financially support the important work of UMCOR. You may use the UMCOR offering envelope in your envelope pack or use a blank envelope and write "UMCOR Offering" on it.

As the body of Christ, we are called to welcome the stranger, feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, clothe the naked, and visit the sick and imprisoned. Our support of UMCOR is one way, we can act out this command.
